GLLGI Mission Statement: The purpose of the Great Lakes Lace Group, Inc. (GLLGI) is

“.....to stimulate and foster a public interest in and appreciation for all phases and facets of lace and lace making, including but not limited to its history, collection, creation and preservation; to share and disseminate information, experience and expertise regarding this time honored, decorative art and craft, and to promote and develop the skillful making of lace by way of demonstration, instruction, teaching or otherwise.”

The GLLGI was formally organized in 1976 and is made up of members located in Michigan, other states, and other countries. The group teaches and sponsors workshops in all types of lace. Members have demonstrated lace making at the Michigan State Fair, Sauder Village in Ohio, and numerous other public events.

Meetings are held six (6) times a year in the Southeastern Michigan area. A newsletter is published every other month. The group also maintains a library that includes books, slides, videos, and DVDs on all types of lace, lacemaking, lace history, etc. These are available for borrowing by its members and by other lace groups.

Membership is open to any person interested in lace. Applicants must file an application and pay the required dues. The GLLGI does not discriminate against anyone on the basis of race, sex, age, color, creed, religious affiliation, national or ethnic origin, previous condition of servitude, sexual orientation, or handicap.
